	)	ORDER PERMITTING TRAVEL
v.	)
CHARLES DEWEY TOBIAS,	)
Defendant.	)

Having been sentenced by this Court, defendant Charles Dewey Tobias is presently on release pending his surrender on April 24, 2007. He is being supervised by United States Pretrial Services and United States Probation in the Middle District of Florida. It is a condition of Mr. Tobias's release that his travel be restricted to the Northern District of California and the Middle District of Florida.

Mr. Tobias wishes to travel from his home near Orlando to Atlanta, Georgia, in the Northern District of Georgia, for business purposes. Specifically, Mr. Tobias intends to meet with executives at Nikor, Inc., the parent company of a VOIP (voice-operated Internet protocol) phone service provider for which Kay Tobias will provide marketing services during the term of Mr. Tobias's imprisonment. Mr. Tobias will not be transferring any of his assets or interests

1 during this trip. He proposes to depart Orlando on Wednesday, April 11, 2007 and return on the
2 evening of Thursday, April 12, 2007.

3 Pretrial Services Officer Candice Bunk and Probation Officer Troy Dennis have been 4 consulted about this proposed travel and do not object, provided that Mr. Tobias maintains and
5 presents copies of his receipts and travel documents, and permits Probation to review any 6 contracts or other business deals that Mr. Tobias negotiates. Mr. Tobias is amenable to these 7 conditions.

8 Accordingly, the parties agree and stipulate that Mr. Tobias's release conditions shall be
9 modified to permit him to travel to and from Atlanta, Georgia from April 11, 2007 through April 10 12, 2007.

11 IT IS SO STIPULATED.
